European Population Conference: EPC 2020

Padova, Italy, 24–27 June, 2020

The European Association for Population Studies (EAPS) invites submissions to the European Population Conference 2020 which will be held in Padova, Italy from 24–27 June 2020. The European Population Conference 2020 (EPC 2020) is organized by EAPS in collaboration with the Department of Statistical Sciences of the University of Padova, and will convene at Padova Fiere. The deadline for submissions is 1 November 2019. Submissions should be made to one of the conference themes, which will be developed into a series of sessions by the Convener of each theme. At EPC 2020 only one submission as presenting author is allowed. Participants may co-author other papers or posters, but only one presentation per author (paper or poster) will be allowed. Each submission should include a short Abstract as well as an extended Abstract or a full paper.

Authors will be informed about acceptance of their submission by January 2020. To submit your Abstract/Paper for EPC 2020 go to:
